Dear Royce Our thoughts are with you and the family at this time. I was one of the fortunate ones that not only met Jackie but actually had her for a mother in-law. Though our lives changed I always remember and cherish the time I was in the family. Funny thing is I have a daughter that reminds me so much of Jackie and I tell her often how much she is like her Grandma(Mamoo)Mock. Ashley even walks like her so I am often reminded of Jackie and I always will be. You picture Jackie in your mind and you are reminded how she always had a smile on her face and laughter that followed no matter what was going on. Stay strong and remember all the good times. Ashley is bringing a big hug to you from New Hampshire. Love Kathy

Dear Royce, I haven't seen you two in a few years but never forgot how wonderful you both were to me. It deeply saddens me to hear this. Jackie made me laugh or laugh so hard it made me cry good tears. She was a wonderful woman and I am so blessed to have known her. I also would like to say my deepest sympathy to you and your children, step children and the rest of the family. I hope you feel the hug I am sending to you and Bev at this time. God Bless and prayers to all at this very sad time. Love Mary

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me
When tomorrow starts without me And I'm not there to see; If the sun should rise and find your eyes All filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry The way you did today; While thinking of the many things We didn't get to say. I know how much you love me... As much as I love you; And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me Please try to understand, That an angel came and called my name And took me by the hand. She said my place was ready In heaven far above; And that I'd have to leave behind, All those I dearly love. But as I turned to walk away, A tear fell from my eye; I didn't want to leave you here I was too young to die. I had so much to live for, So much yet to do; It seemed almost impossible, That I was leaving you. I thought of you and Daddy And how much you needed me Of all things I'll never do And things I'll never see. And when I thought of worldly things I would miss come tomorrow; I thought of you, and when I did, My heart was filled with sorrow. But the angel bent and whispered A secret only I could hear She said that true love never dies That I would still be near. So when tomorrow starts without me, Don't think we're far apart... For every time you think of me, I'm right there ... in your heart.
