Norbert "Schully" Schulenburg

OCT 19, 2018

SCHULENBERG, Norbert L. "Schully", age 85, passed away on Wednesday, October 17, 2018.

Born in Williamsville, NY, he graduated from Clarkson University (a student athlete, Schully played baseball, basketball, football for the Golden Knights while earning a degree in Civil Engineering) – after which he served as a US Army Lieutenant; married his wife of 53 years – Theresa (Amarosa) from Utica, NY; held successful commercial construction senior leadership positions; and became a 48-years long resident of Florida. He was a faithful member of St. Ignatius Catholic Church in Tarpon Springs as well. An avid and very accomplished golfer, Schully likewise enjoyed spending time with family, socializing, fishing, traveling, and had many close friends.

Upon entering eternal life, he looked forward to firstly reuniting in forever togetherness with his beloved Theresa, and then others. He is survived by sons – James of Richmond, VA and David (Joy) of Davidson, NC; grandchildren – James and Kelsea, Serena, Morgan.

Family preceded in death: Theresa – wife; Gene – brother; Eugene (Rose) – father and mother; David – grandson; Carmine (Regina) Amarosa – immediate in-laws.

If desired, in-tribute donations may be made in Norbert's memory to Suncoast Hospice and condolences shared directly with family and or posted online at <http://jamesfuneralhomekn.com/norbert-leo-schulenburg>.

Per their wishes, a memorial service is being arranged - which will also include remembrances for Theresa - at Grace Church in Utica, NY and burial at Forest Hill Cemetery will be set for thereafter.

James Funeral Home of Huntersville is serving the family.
