David Paul Bjorneboe

APR 20, 2016

David Paul Bjorneboe, 52, of Fort Lauderdale, FL and Huntersville, NC died April 20, 2016. He was born on June 11, 1963 in Charlotte, NC to Paul and Marie Fisher Bjorneboe and grew up in Huntersville, NC.

A beloved son, brother, uncle, and friend, David passed away suddenly and unexpectedly in Fort Lauderdale of complications from hemochromatosis. He was a graduate of North Mecklenburg High School and Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University in Daytona Beach Florida where he became a pilot and earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Aviation Business Planning and Administration. David worked for various aviation authorities in Florida: Miami-Dade Aviation Department, Florida Department of Transportation as the Aviation Programs Administrator covering Miami-Dade and Monroe Counties, and Broward County Aviation Department as Assistant to the Aviation Director. Over the last seven years, he worked as a consultant in the transportation industry for FDOT and Miami-Dade Transit. He was currently consulting with the Broward County Aviation Department. Due to his love of the Bahamas, David managed the Abaco Inn in Hopetown on Elbow Cay in the Abaco Island Chain, where he and his sister spent many happy hours. David had a lifelong passion for aviation. He also loved fishing, especially in the Everglades, and travelled all over the southeast in his parents' motor home attending NASCAR races with his family. He explored the world as well, visiting destinations all over Europe and the Caribbean. David will be remembered for his gregarious sense of humor, and his fun-loving approach to life. David will be forever missed by his family and many friends.

In addition to his parents, survivors include his sister, Cynthia Bjorneboe Zande of Huntersville; brother, Stephen Mark Bjorneboe of Beverly Hills, CA; niece, Brittany Anne Kuck of Huntersville; nephew, Chandler Matthew Zande of Mooresville, NC; and great-nephew, Landen Michael Jansen of Huntersville.

Condolences and remembrances may be expressed at JamesFuneralHomeLKN.com. Condolences may also be addressed to Paul and Marie Bjorneboe at 12001 Mayes Road, Huntersville, NC 28078.

Dear, dear David, For the short time we have known each other, it seems like a life time. I am going to miss you tremendously. I am going to miss you sharing your sister's text messages with the pronunciation or lack thereof, of so many words by others not speaking the English language. I smile each day when I think of those times. I am going to miss your early morning texts simply saying "on the bus". Rest in peace my dear, dear friend.

Paul, Marie, Cyndi and Steve, I cherish the memories I have, being with the family, and the times that David and I shared together. Such an intelligent, handsome man, who was as skilled in an office environment as he was working outside and fixin' fence. He treated me, and others, with great respect. He loved the water, and never needed anything fancy to get him where he was going. His simple living was a great character trait. I love you all deeply, and, like many of your friends, I wish I could ease your pain. I will never forget him. Thank you all for loving me, and including me when sharing the news of this tragedy. God's got him now - and he's reunited with his beloved cat, Abaco. They're probably fishing together. Blessings to you. ~ K

I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with David on the Fort Lauderdale runway project. He was a competent manager, a pleasure to work with, and always courteous. He encouraged my husband and I to visit him at the Abaco Inn and we did, and have fond memories of fishing with him and the special places he showed us. Rest in peace David.

Thank you Teresa for your sympathy. David was here last weekend, we got the motorhome ready to go to the Talladega Race, took him to the Concord airport to fly back to Lauderdale. We talked to him Tuesday night and all was well. David collapsed in the hallway outside his apartment Wednesday morning, sudden and totally unexpected. Please let my friends at Duke know. Paul
