Dear Anne and family, My heart is filled with sadness at Larry's passing. He was such a good man and a hard worker at Oak Grove and we are going to really miss him. My thoughts, prayers and love are with you all. I pray that God will give you all the strength that you need now and in the days to come to cope with his loss. Please know that you have my deepest sympathy and love, but most of all you have God's love which can help when nothing else can. Blessings and prayers, Kay Brown
