Whenever I think of the annual APEX and APAA auto show in Las Vegas I think of Lynn. He took time out of his busy schedule about 10 years ago to take me to dinner and then for a ride atop The Stratosphere. It's called "The Big Shot". It was a ride we did several years following and is something only for a few daring people. He was so excited about that ride. What a great person and will always be remembered by me and some folks here at Carolinas Auto Supply House. I know he's enjoying his next big ride. Sincerely, Alan White
