I was so saddened to hear of Bob's passing. I was attending Kevin's wake this evening and heard many good things about Bob also. We had many good times at St. Elizabeth's and am remembering you in my prayers at this time. Sincerest condolences, and I am thinking of you. Love, Marilyn Laurino.

Dear Joan and family: MaryBeth and I miss you much. We were energetic classmates together in 1992. I remember meeting Bob at the noon Mass in Nativity parish in Midland Park, NJ a few times even though neither one of us belonged to the parish. Bob was always thoughtful and care-giving as you were Joan Abrazo and let the peace of Christ envelop you and family always but especially during this Easter season. Love you lots! Jim and MaryBeth

To Joan and family, I knew Bob through the Knights of Columbus at St. Therese. Bob and I got to know each other by cooking together during last years and the previous years fish fries. He was a big help and was quick to ask "what else can I do?". He had some pretty funny stories to tell about his growing up and of his years on the Job. I will miss him and I will keep you all in my prayers. Vivat Jesus, Tony Del Re.
