Dear Anthony and Kathy, I am so saddened to hear about the loss of your Mom. I remember her at my house with all of the CLUB GIRLS in Philadelphia on 20th Street. They were a wonderful crew of ladies who all grew up together,,, that CLUB lasted almost 65 years or more. So many memories of the parties that the ladies had at my house and of your Mom dancing with my father in my dining room. I loved your mom, and I never forgot her or your dad ! I truly feel your grief at this time and I know Phil will be so happy to see your Dad again. My sincerest sympathy,,, Rosemary

I am genuinely sorry for your loss. May your family find solace from the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation. God promised that in the Paradise life will be a delight –more than we can imagine– because violence, accidents, sickness, and death will be no more. He will even resurrect many loved ones like Philomena. Until then, trust that in due season, Jehovah God can heal you who are brokenhearted. --Psalm 34:18.
