By any chance is William A. Todd, Sr., who passed on June 24th originally from Valley Stream, New York? The similarities I read in his obituary sound like the gentleman I knew many years ago and I would love to contact his family to express my sympathy. Thank You.

It was with much sadness that I learned today of Bill's passing. When I visited with him at Olde Knox Commons, it always brought back happy memories of my growing up in the Long Creek community of which he was a part. My condolences to the family.
