Tim:It was perfect that Steve, Jenny, Savanna and Avery were all ready to go to your traditional Stein family reunion at May Camp (in June), when their plans changed and they made their way to North Carolina to see Sharron, who had just been placed in Hospice care and returned to her home. They treasured their visit with you and Sharron, Eric, Bobbie, Prescott and Jill and all your wonderful neighbors. I'm glad I could picture your lovely home while they were visiting, remembering my stay with you and Sharron for Savanna's dance competition. My thoughts and prayers are with you as the Heavens are opening to welcome Sharron to her Heavenly home ... one she will be putting in order as she did her earthly home. How happy your parents must be to welcome her arrival! And my heart is also very full at the thought of your loss and the time you now face without Sharron. You were a very thoughtful, loving and joyful husband, and I know you were a great comfort to Sharron in her last days. May your memories and your many friends bring you comfort in the coming days ... Love, Trish

Tim, I'm saddened to have read your email several hours ago. I'm very very sorry for your loss of Sharon ; Charles & I both are. Please know that we both are thinking of you in this trying time right now. I remember speaking with her 3 weeks ago or so when she was at your travel office, introducing myself to her over the phone. It's hard to think I never met Sharon in person! Please know that Charles & I BOTH SHARE your loss. Yvonne & Charles
