Please accept my heartfelt sympathy. It is natural to experience a gamut of emotions at this time. However, please remember that when the death of a loved one occurs that God is especially close to the broken hearted, and he truly cares about your feelings; He is the hearer of prayer. Revelation 21:4 informs us that soon sickness, suffering, and even death will be wiped clean away. Also John 5:28, 29 promises that those we have lost in death will be resurrected to life, here on earth. I do hope that you allow God to help you heal through the comforting pages of the Bible.

When Jan and Dave heard about Eric on Sunday at the 3 o'clock hour, we immediately prayed the Divine Mercy Chaplet for Eric! Since then, people have offered Mass and their Communion for him. A number of individuals, St Mark prayer groups, and even a Protestant prayer group, have prayed many more prayers, chaplets, rosaries and novenas for Eric. We are consoled that the Lord extended Eric's life one more day so that his family, friends, St Mark parishioners and these prayer groups could help send Eric to our Lord with so many graces! JESUS I TRUST IN YOU

I am sorry to hear of your loss. One of the most difficult things we have to deal with is the death of a loved one. The Bible promise: "God is close to the brokenhearted." It also says; "Throw your burden on God and he will sustain you." (Psalm 34;18 and 55:22) The Bible gives us hope that one day our dead loved ones will be brought back to life. (John 5:28,29) I hope this message offers comfort in your time of sadness.
