

Ann Harper Dixon

APR 25, 2014

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 5

Ann Harper Dixon

APR 25, 2014

Ann Harper Dixon, of Concord, NC, and formerly of South Salem, NY, died peacefully on April 24th at the age of 74. Born in Indianapolis, the oldest of four daughters of Robert Harper, the bass trombone player for the Philadelphia Orchestra from 1945-1981, and Alice Rayburn Harper. A graduate of Upper Darby Sr. High School, PA. Ann attended Kutztown State University and graduated with a degree in Education. Her first job was teaching art to elementary school students in Washingtonville, NY, where she met manufacturing executive Robert (Bob) T. Dixon who became her beloved husband of 50 years, and who survives her. Ann was a devoted mother and grandmother and an active member of her community. She served as a Deacon at the South Salem Presbyterian Church and volunteered with many other local organizations including Lewisboro Elementary School, Katonah Food Pantry and Mooresville Soup Kitchen. Ann loved being active and was an inveterate walker. She and Bob enjoyed gardening together, visiting with their grandchildren, and rooting for the Duke Blue Devils. After moving to the Charlotte area in 2007, she became involved in many church activities. A truly gifted and talented artist, Ann explored many mediums and studied art throughout her life. A keen observer, she had a unique gift of capturing moments in time through her artwork. She was also a 20-year veteran of what is now GE Capital, retiring in 2006, where she was a dedicated and highly-valued legal secretary. At the time of her death, she was a resident at Taylor Glen CCRC in Concord, NC, and an active member of Huntersville Presbyterian Church.

She is survived by her son Ted, his wife Elspeth and her two grandchildren Julia and Sam, all of Mount Kisco, NY. She is also survived by three sisters, in-laws, nieces and nephews. Ann will be deeply missed by her family and her many friends.

Obituary

Ann Harper Dixon

A memorial service will be held on Wednesday, April 30th at 2:00 pm at the Huntersville Presbyterian Church.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Mountain Marketplace Mission, 95 Gauley River Road, Webster Springs, West Virginia, 26288-9511.

James Funeral Home of Huntersville is serving the family. www.jamesfuneralhomeLKN.com

Tribute Wall

Ann Harper Dixon

BP

Bill & Ginny Poulton posted:

Our thoughts and prayers have been with the Dixon Family, and Bob continues to be in our prayers during his bereavement. Lovingly, Bill & Ginny Poulton

May 3 at 9:02 AM

RD

Robert T Dixon posted:

Hi All;Thanks for your kind words.It was time-the stroke last June did terrible damage.How are you?What are Colin and Claire doing?Bob Dus51385618@yahoo.com

May 2 at 3:17 PM

UT

Una Thomson posted:

I grieve of the loss of my Sister-in-Christ, my fellow SSPC deacon, my friend. Bob, may Peace be with you. With love from David, Una, Colin & Claire.

May 2 at 4:17 AM

DP

Danielle Deluca-Pytell posted:

All of our love and prayers are with the Dixons during this difficult time. We are thinking of you all.

April 29 at 5:50 PM

JC

Jackie Crump posted:

I remember Ann from when I worked at Taylor Glen, I could tell she was a great artist from the pictures she had displayed in her room,I will miss her, my condolences to the family.

April 28 at 4:06 PM

KM

Karen Mann posted:

I am so sorry. My siblings, Max (my Yorkie), and I always enjoyed talking with her when we visited mom. She was a delightful lady and will be greatly missed. Sending prayers for peace for your family.

April 26 at 8:26 AM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Ann by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

