Mary's friends from the Jefferson Wells/Experis Detroit office so enjoyed our years working with Mary. She was a true professional who could always be relied on for exceptional client service but, even more important to many of us, she was a friend. Several of us remember our "girls' night out" dinners with Mary where we shared our work and family stories -- with a little wine and a lot of laughter. She always spoke so lovingly and proudly of her wonderful daughters. Her friends will keep these memories to help with our sadness.
