In today's society, staying in touch with cousins and other distant relatives is a diminishing trait. I first met James and Harriet in 1990 at a family gathering in Clover Virginia. Several times over the last ten years we have stopped in Davidson to visit when we have traveled from Georgia to see my mother in Virginia. Harriet and James were always cheerful and excited to have visitors. They loved to talk of ancestors and told stories of the Fredericksen move from Iowa in 1885, ( passed to them by James's Father and uncles).we will miss this dear couple.God's blessing and guidance to Martha , Louise , and the rest of the family.

I knew Mrs Fredericksen from earliest childhood as church and community member in Davidson and as the mother of my childhood best friend, Jimmy. As an adult I came to appreciate her as an intelligent, humane and kind woman with many gifts of sympathy and insight. My mother was her close friend and my daughter was quite fond of "Mrs Fred." Rest in Peace family friend.
