Eulalie McKnight McLaurin

JUN 2, 2017

Eulalie McKnight McLaurin, age 88, of Huntersville, N.C. and Clio, S.C. died on June 1, 2017. She was born on August 22, 1928 to the late Preston McKnight and Emma McGee McKnight of Coward, S.C.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of 55 years, Neil Duncan McLaurin, sisters, Louise M. Byrd, Leona M. Vause, and brothers, Lavern McKnight, Lamar McKnight.

She graduated from J.C. Lynch High School in 1945. "Miss Eula" was a member and elder of Carolina Presbyterian Church, a member of the Chapter of the Eastern Star where she served as Worthy Matron. She was known for her love of family and church, her beautiful hand quilting skills and gardening green thumb; as someone once said, "She could root anything but an iron stob." She designed and made her daughters, son-in-law and grandchildren each a beautiful hand-quilted quilt.

She is survived by her daughter, Emma Neil Ogle, son-in-law, Michael E. Ogle of Huntersville, N.C., granddaughter Laurin Ogle of Charlotte, N.C. ; daughter, Annette Newman of McDonough, Ga.; grandsons, Neil Newman (Kat) and Spence Newman (Jamie) of McDonough Ga; her sister, Annie Mae Pate of Coward, SC , two great granddaughters, nieces, nephews and cousins.

"My NaNa" as she was known by her grandchildren will be remembered as a fun loving, happy, devoted Christian example that put other's needs before her own. She enjoyed humor, jokes, singing hymns, reading, quilting and sewing.

Memorial contributions can be made to Carolina Presbyterian Church Cemetery Fund, 4555 Parrish Mill Road, Little Rock, South Carolina, 29567.

Eula was a wonderful member of our Sunday School Class since she came to Huntersville Oaks. She was so faithful in her attendance and always had a praise report each week. I don't think it's an overstatement to say that she was beloved by all of us, residents and church volunteers alike. She had a special place in our heart and no one can replace her. We will miss her smile and laughter and her optimistic outlook. We'll keep her family in our thoughts and prayers because we know how she cherished each one of you. May you be blessed by wonderful memories of dear Eula. Dorothy Harbin
