Our deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. Words alone can not ease the pain when grieving the loss of a love one. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". May God give you and your family comfort in your loving memories and in His promise that soon we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope, with deepest sympathy and warmth of heart.

I loved Louann. We met in Coast Guard boot camp (U130). She was a sweet, loving and fun person, who would literally give her life to save another's. Her life reminds me of the verse from John 15:13; "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.". That was Louann...She was a special person and a hero to me (and others). God bless her sweet and loving heart. Your pain is gone, my dear friend, and you are free from the bounds of humanity, and into the arms of The Lord.God bless you Louann...This world is a much better place having had you in it.With all my love to you and prayers for you and your family,Bob(Robert L. Dear Maria and Gayle -- We were so very sorry to learn of your Mother's passing; but at the same time comforted with the memory of your Mom's vibrant life; a bright shining star with the biggest of hearts. We love you both so much and miss you too. Your Mom's strength and love will always be with you. So much of her promise, beauty, passion and joy has been passed on to you both. Love, Cousin Ryan and Aunt Chris.
