Marlee Elizabeth Hart

FEB 6, 2012

Marlee Elizabeth Hart, 24, of Fort Mill, SC, died on Sunday Feb. 5th at Carolinas Medical Center. Diagnosed with cancer after graduation from Fort Mill High School, Marlee fought the disease while working towards her degree in Graphic Communications at Clemson University. Marlee maintained all of her natural gifts of love, humor, wit and charm. She attacked her ailment as she did life with vigor, courage and wonder. She remains an inspiration to all who met her.

The disease did not rob her of a career. Marlee enjoyed internships at Medco Health in NJ and Classic Graphics in Charlotte, NC. where she met many wonderful people and made lasting friendships. She loved football, all things Clemson, dancing the Charleston and Dunkin ' Donuts. Marlee's true gift was in meeting someone once and remaining a friend for life. She had a second family in her online friends who were very important to her and a great source of comfort and support.

She is survived by her parents, Frank and Maureen Hart, of Fort Mill, SC , brothers James and Duncan, grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. Philip Hart, of Florence, SC, and Mr. and Mrs. James B. Wadick, of Attleboro, MA, as well as many, many Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and Friends from Maine to California.

To honor Marlee's wishes, all are invited to celebrate her extraordinary life, on May 4, at 7PM by participating in the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life at Pendleton High School in Pendleton, S.C. I only knew Marlee online. I really wish I could have said something better than "I will miss you" the first time I left a note, but it was all I could think of at the time. I am even shaking as I type this. I wish everyone who called Marlee family and friend great strength through this, and send my deepest condolences. She was a blessing on this Earth, someone I didn't even know in person who impacted my life so very much. I miss you, Marlee. I miss you so much.

I know Marlee must have mentioned her friends Becky, Beth and Krystal. I met her for the first time back in 2007 and have adored and loved her every day since. I'm so incredibly sorry for your loss. Marlee meant so much to a lot of people. She had such a wide circle of friends on the internet and we all cared about her, and supported her through her cancer fight every single day she needed it. She was a brave, kind soul who lived life to the fullest. I will miss her so much. My thoughts are with you and yours.
