Obituary

James Ozias Ropp

James Ozias Ropp, 70, of Cornelius, NC, died Saturday, May 11, 2013 at the Levine-Dickson Hospice House in Huntersville, NC after a long and courageous battle with brain cancer.

He was born in Bloomington, IL, the son of the late Cornelius Ropp and was raised in Gibson City, IL. He was a teacher at East Leyden High School in Franklin Park, IL for 33 years until he retired to Friendsville, TN.

Survivors include his wife, Harolyn Treadwell Ropp of Cornelius, NC; a daughter, Christina Dowell and husband Robert of Mebane, NC; a son, Douglas Ropp of Charlotte; his mother, Lidabelle Dever Ropp of Maryville, TN; a sister, Cornelia Cramer of Gibson City, IL; and two grandchildren, Kayla and Annabelle Dowell. He was preceded in death by a sister Celia Ropp.

A graveside service will be held on Wednesday, May 15, 2013, at 11:00 AM, at Mt. Zion Community Cemetery in Cornelius.

James Funeral Home of Huntersville is serving the family of Mr. Ropp and online condolences can be made to jamesfuneralhomelkn.com.

I am so sorry for your loss. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3,4...states "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death.

To the family of Jim Ropp: I am saddened by the loss of Jim. I was an Industrial Arts teacher at West Leyden for the same length that Jim was at East. We both retired in 1994. Our slogan was "Out the Door in 94". He was a great guy and when I think about him I will never forget the last day of school when Jim through away his coffee pot. Jim made the best coffee I have ever had. The funny thing was that he never believed in washing the pot and it was total brown color. We laughed about it many times and it is my favorite story about Jim. He was a good man.
