John Lewis

MAY 4, 2012

John G. Lewis, 81, of Davidson, NC, and Ocean Drive, SC, died on Friday, May 4, 2012, at the Levine & Dickson Hospice House. He was born on August 8, 1930, in Jacksonville, FL, to the late Pearce and Margaret McLin Lewis. He served in both the U.S. Army and Navy and enjoyed a successful career as a manufacturer's representative for Corbin, Ltd., Hickey-Freeman, and Bobby Jones men's clothing. He was an avid golfer and dancer and was a member of The Shagger's Hall of Fame as well as The Living Legends, organizations dedicated to the preservation of the shag, the South Carolina state dance.

He is survived by his wife, Jan Lewis; sister, Margaret Ann Schwartzburg of Lawrence, KS; son, John G. Lewis, III, and wife Sharon of Raleigh; daughter, Cathy Sloan and husband Steve of Statesville; and son, Bert Ogburn and wife Jennifer of Mt. Pleasant, SC; niece Katie Strahan and husband Ward of Fairway, KS; six grandchildren, one great-grandchild and one great-nephew. He is also survived by mother-in-law, Nadine T. Atkinson; brother-in-law Steve Atkinson and wife Alicia, and niece Kathryn Atkinson. He was predeceased by his father-in-law, Maj. (ret.) Walter G. Atkinson, Jr., and his brother-in-law, Tripp Atkinson.

Funeral services will be private.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Levine & Dickson Hospice House, 10500 Vanstory Dr., Huntersville, NC 28078 or The Hall of Fame Foundation, P.O. Box 4070, N. Myrtle Beach, SC 29597.

James Funeral Home, Huntersville, is serving the family. www.jamesfuneralhomeLKN.com

The Silent Majority That Is Going To Be posted:

John was one of the most disgustingly vile black supremacists to forever stain the capital and its legacy. His will be a legacy of hate-filled opinions towards all races, including his own as he robustly supported the continued extermination of his race all for the love of money over his kind.
