I could not express better the condolence above from Linda Evans. You all do exhibit such love, greatness and family-orientation. I know your feeling of absence of Mrs. Crump will be sorely felt -- but you all who know, will know -- "You Will See Her Again". Peace and Love to you all. I am the Maternal Grandmother to Rodney and Ali.

I am sorry to hear of your loss. I know it is a sad time for the family. I did not know Mrs. Crump as a person, Friend, Wife, Mom, Grandma, Sister, Aunt, Niece, or cousin, but she shines through all of you the kind of person she was in each respect. God be with you all and give you strength and peace in this time of sorrow. I pray you find comfort in the following verses. Ecclesiastes 3 kjv
Ecclesiastes 3 King James Version (KJV) 3 To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: 2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; 3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; 4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; 5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; 6 A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; 7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; 8 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. 9 What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth? 10 I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it. 11 He hath made everything beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end. 12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life. 13 And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.
