Carol Hinkle

JUL 10, 2017

Mrs. Carol Ann Helms Hinkle, of Mooresville, went home to be with her Lord Jesus Christ, Friday July 7th. Carol was born in Charlotte January 10th, 1938 and was married to Sidney Lamar Hinkle. Carol was a dear Christian Sister who loved the Lord and Loved to be with His People. She was a very faithful member of Lakeside Fellowship ARP Church in Mooresville and served the Lord there in many ways. Though in her later life she was burdened with many bodily infirmities, she seldom missed a Church Service or an opportunity to help and serve others.

Carol loved Children and was known as “Grandma Carol” to many. She was preceded in death by her Husband Sidney Lamar and her Son David Scott. Though she was bereft of close Family in the last several years of her life, she found a Family with the Brothers and Sisters at Lakeside Fellowship. She was often comforted in knowing that her heavenly Father had also lost a Son and knew that pain and He alone is equipped to truly bless and comfort those who mourn.

A Memorial Service will be held at Lakeside Fellowship ARP Church, 381 Williamson Road Mooresville, NC 28117 on Thursday, July 13th at 11am. There will be a brief graveside Service at Sharon Memorial in Charlotte at 1pm.

Carol Hinkle is in Heaven now because of her faith in Jesus Christ who loved her and gave Himself for her.

“Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the Earth” Matthew 5:5

“But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.”
Psalm 37:11
