Such a bittersweet day it's been... full of a lot of tears yet even more smiles! Missing Jimbo endlessly, it's nice to remember how much we laughed!! I remember him in the lake wearing all his gear and teaching me to fly fish...and having to deal with me as I was tangled in a web of line Ashe was "allegedly" (lol) reeling in the biggest Catfish his country soul had ever seen!! 😞 Jimbo, I'll forever miss your wartime stories, paint fights and the truest love my heart has ever known. RIP sweet one. Forever in my heart, I love you,-Sharon

Dearest Dell, I'm saddened to hear of your loss. Although I didn't know Jim personally, he had to be an incredibly special man to have been your husband for so many years. There may be a hole in your soul that for now will be filled with love and comfort of family and friends. I'm Praying for you. May God wrap his arms around you with each new day and give you strength. Love, Lynn
