Cathy, I have so many good memories of you and our times together. We were young, silly and so full of ourselves. We loved to dance to the blues and drink tequila sunrises all night long. Then the day came that we went our different directions. I never forgot you or the fun we had, and I never will. I hope you are in heaven dancing the evening away to Statesboro Blues or one of your other favorites, flashing that bright smile of yours and having yourself a grand old time. All of us here will miss you, but we will carry a small part of you with us always. God bless your family, may they stay strong. Jane Davis Hart Peniston

I am so sorry for the loss of dear Cathy. I hope the family will find comfort in knowing that the time for her to rest is only temporary for Jesus said that "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29) She will awaken to a world where suffering and death are no more. (Psalm 37:29; Revelation 21:4) Until that time, our loving Creator knows that for you as the grieving family, it will be difficult living without your loved one. So, he invites you, as the "God of all comfort," to "throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you." (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; 1 Peter 5:7)

I loved my cousin Cathy she was a sweet person. My memories of her are mostly from childhood and early adulthood. I know she had many health problems over the past 10 years or more, but this caught me by surprise because I failed to stay in closer contact. I am very sorry for that and even more sorry for all of her immediate family for there loss. Life is precious and often taken for granted. We never know...
