David Chu

SEP 29, 2015

Dr. David Bao-Shan Chu, 92, of Concord passed away Tuesday, September 29, 2015 after a lengthy illness. Born in Shanghai, China of western-educated parents, he immigrated to the U.S. in 1949. After earning a Master's Degree in business at Baylor University in Texas, he went on to Baylor Medical School and to an internship and residency in New York City where he met his wife of almost 57 years, Gail Cooper. In 1962, after doing a fellowship in cardiology, he practiced in New York for 5 years. In 1967, the couple went as medical missionaries to Jeonju, Korea where he ministered at the Jesus Hospital until 1988. Dr. Chu then worked for the Department of the Army until retirement.

The couple had five children; Philip (Jeannie) of St. Cloud, MN, Luisa (David) of Concord, Lydia (Tim) of Houston, TX, Peter (Ryn) of Asheville, and Davy (Pey) of Concord. He is also survived by a sister, Rosalind Chu of Concord, 18 grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

A private burial will be held at NorthLake Memorial Gardens in Huntersville. A memorial service and luncheon will be held at Providence Presbyterian Church, 551-C Pitts School Rd NW., Concord, NC 28027 on Saturday, October 3, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. The family will receive friends beginning at 9:00 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that gifts be made to the Missionary Outreach Program at Jesus Hospital in Jeonju. Checks can be made payable to Providence Presbyterian Church, 551-C Pitts School Road NW, Concord, NC 28027 with "In memory of Dr. David Chu" printed on the memo line.

James Funeral Home of Huntersville is assisting the family. Online condolences may be made at www.jamesfuneralhomlkn.com.

Love to the family. Prayers for comfort and indwelling peace for all. THANKS to God for the life, witness and service of this precious Son of God. David's ministry and works will be long-remembered. Grateful for how he lived in and changed the world around him. Grateful for the family he leaves behind - temporarily. Thanking God for the opportunity to have seen and experienced the love and hospitality of the Chu family and their widespread and faithful witness throughout the world. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Wish I could join you today and see you together one last time...but floods keep me here. Your Korea family loves and embraces each and every one of you. blessings abound - in Christ Jesus. God be with you all.
