Doris and family, George and I were friends in Connersville, Indiana dating to 1957, when we attended the same elementary school. George is remembered as having lots of energy and fun to be around. He was well liked and respected. I am sorry for your loss, and want to express my condolences. George will live in our memories as the great guy he was.

Doris. I am so sorry for your loss. I enjoyed our trips together and still miss them. I loved you and George very much. You have your adorable grandchildren to help fill the void. It takes time to adjust but you are a strong woman. Knowing you will sometimes meet again gives us all comfort and joy. I will be praying for you and the children. Linda

George you were one of our very special friends when we lived in Harrisburg. We had many great times together especially square dancing. Will never forget your trips to TX to visit us. You were always full of life and ready for the next adventure. We will miss you a lot but will see you again in our next life. Our prayers are for the family who are grieving for you. May they find peace and comfort in knowing they too will be with you again.
