I'm so sorry for the lose of your sister. On May 5th 2011 my husband put his Mother at Wexford House in Denver. Thats the day I met Phyllis. Phyllis and I hit it off from day one. She said its like we've known each other our whole lives. She started telling everyone we were sisters. We got along better then me and my real sisters. I Loved Phyllis so much and I really Miss her. All three of my daughters and all six grandkids and my Mother also Loved her, they loved to visit her she was so funny. You really had a remarkable sister and We will all miss her. Rest in peace Phyllis and I LOVE YOU.
