Jack Mayes

AUG 6, 2014

Jack Edward Mayes, 82 of Charlotte, died August 6, 2014. He was born on September 30, 1931 in Mecklenburg County to the late Lamont and Myrtle Johnston Mayes.

Survivors include his wife Carol Amelia Young Mayes; daughter, Dawn Mayes; son, Jonathan Mayes both of Charlotte; and sister, Peggy Mayes Craven and her husband Walter of Huntersville. Jack was preceded in death by brothers John, Lamont Jr., George and Robert Mayes; and sisters, Daisy Mayes Shelton, Ellen Mayes Green, Jean Mayes Knox.

Jack graduated from Cornelius High School and from Carolina Business College with a diploma in accounting and motor traffic management. Jack was employed by the Mecklenburg County Tax Office for 35 years. Upon his retirement in 1995, he held the position of supervisor of Business Personal Property. From 1979-1982, he was the tax supervisor for Mecklenburg County. Jack was a member of the NC Association of Assessing Officers from 1966-1995, serving on the association's executive committee, as well as treasurer and secretary. He was an active member of the International Association of Assessing Officers (IAAO) from 1966 until his death. Jack enthusiastically served on numerous committees, and taught and wrote instructional materials for the organization. He was honored to serve multiple terms on the IAAO Ethics Committee and was elected to the IAAO Executive Board. For his service to the organization, Jack received awards for IAAO's most valuable member in 1985, received 2 presidential citations and received the organizations prestigious McCarron Award.

Jack loved his church. He was an active and faithful member of Northside Baptist Church for 51 years. For 40 years, Jack was a member of the choir and taught the second grade boys Sunday School class. He also served multiple terms on the church's deacon board.

A funeral service will be held at 3:00 p.m. Saturday, August 9 at Northside Baptist Church with Rev. Barry Shearer officiating. Visitation will be in the sanctuary from 2:00-3:00 prior. Burial will follow at Gethsemane Memorial Gardens.

Jack has been my personal closest friend since 2003 and he did not stop to communicate to me through writing letters. Carol I just extend my deepest sympathy to you and encouraging you that soon we will all meet him at the blossom of our father of faith Abraham one these days. Jonathan and Dawn take courage though this may be great loss but I know that Jack is in the glory. May his soul rest in peace. Bornface and Annie Malawi, Africa.

Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one! Jonathan has been a faithful and loving friend to my family and we love him very much. He spoke often of his dad and I feel like I knew him. Thankfully, we have the hope of seeing him again one day. May God comfort your hearts as you continue on without him! His health has now been restored to him! Love, Veda Boyd, a close friend to Jonathan!
