To Evva and the Carpino family: I am so sad to hear of John's passing and now the absence of a dear, gentle and loving husband, father and grandfather. At the same time, I am happy that John is now in the presence of a loving Father God who has met John and welcomed him home! I am grateful to have shared many happy memories with John, Evva and also saw your loving sons grow to manhood. John had a gift of making everyone welcome and accepted, who had the privilege of knowing him. Evva, my love and prayers are with you now and always as you grieve, but knowing we will share eternity.

I am so sorry to hear of your great loss. Recently I lost my dear mother, and found great comfort in the Holy Bible, like at Isaiah 25 verse 8 - "The Sovereign Lord will swallow up death forever, and wipe away the tears from all faces." Also at Revelation 21 verse 4 we find God's promise to remove both pain and death. For more comfort, I turn to the website at: www.jw.org (Search: Comfort)
