We received back our Christmas card to Judy in January, but I was recovering from surgery. I just now discovered her obituary and am so grieved. We were sorority sisters at Georgia and as newlywed couples we saw each other often. We kept in touch over the years. I am grieved that she is gone. She was always a good friend and fun to be with, always smiling. I know her family misses her so much.

David writes: "Jehovah is close to the broken hearted; he saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18) This phrase is "an expressive way of saying that the Lord is attentive and watchful, always ready to help and to save his people." It is reassuring to know that God watches over his people. He sees what they are going through in these "critical times," and he knows their innermost feelings. Like a loving parent who holds and comforts a child in distress, God is near to his worshippers who cry out to him for help. He is eager to comfort and soothe our broken heart and crushed spirit. He can give us the wisdom and strength needed to cope with any trials we may face. —2 Corinthians 4:7
