I would like to send my condolences to you for your loss. I know this is a difficult time for your loved ones, but the bible gives us comfort in assuring us that one day sickness, pain and death will no more. (Revelations 21:3-4) The Bible also comforts us in knowing our loved ones are no longer suffering but are in a sleep-like state. (John 11:11-14, 23-26) I hope these scriptures will be encouraging for you and bring you comfort throughout your day.

Please accept my condolences in the loss of your love one. It's very hard to bear the loss of someone so dear. Although there is little that one can say or do to take away all your pain, please know that you are in the thoughts and prayers of many. The Bible promises at Isaiah 25:8 that 'He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces. JW.org

To the family of George, I had the pleasure of getting to know George while he was attending school in Chapel Hill. He was a guest in my home while dating my daughter Aimee Morris. My family and I were very fond of George. He was so sweet natured and touched me with his thoughtfulness. I was so surprised when one year he bought me the sound track to Everything is Illuminated. I had told him at some point in time that it was my favorite movie and couldn't believe he had remembered. I can not express how sorry I am for your loss and how privileged I feel to have known George. God bless you in this time of sorrow. Sincerely, Judy Royal
