Larayne Limitone Smith, 78, of Huntersville passed away peacefully on October 1, 2017, surrounded by her family. She was born on September 21, 1939 in Bronx, NY to the late Dominick and Florence Limitone. Larayne moved to Orlando, FL in the late 1960s. She and her husband owned a landscape company that specialized in creating gorgeous views for estates in the Northwest Orlando area before retiring to Huntersville in 2003. She was an excellent cook; a passionate dog lover and a talented artist whose medium of choice was watercolors. Larayne possessed a wealth of knowledge and always impeccably dressed. Friendly to everyone she met, Larayne will be sorely missed by all who knew her.
