Marie Cignarale

SEP 24, 2012

Marie D. Cignarale, 67, of Huntersville, a devoted housewife, loving grandmother, mother and friend, died September 24, 2012 at Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte. She was born on May 21, 1945 in New York, NY to the late Phillip and Margaret Dwyer.

A former data entry clerk from Las Vegas, Marie is most noted for her ceramic creativity, spending time with her family and spoiling her grandchildren every chance she got.

Survivors include her husband Michael; daughters, Theresa Turner and husband Glen and Michele Boes and husband Matthew, all of Huntersville; sister, Peggy Maher of Milford, PA; and grandchildren Derek and Cameron.

The family would like to thank the staff of the Presbyterian Hospital ICU, Huntersville and Charlotte, for their love and care.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, PO BOX 22718 Oklahoma City, OK, 73123-1718.

A funeral service will be held at 4:00 Thursday, September 27 in the chapel of James Funeral Home, 10520 Arahova Dr. Huntersville, NC with Rev. Bill Gittner officiating. The family will receive friends from 2-4 prior at the funeral home.

James Funeral Home is serving the family. www.jamesfuneralhomeLKN.com

Michael, Theresa, Michele & Family: No doubt, your hearts yearn to see Marie again. I hope that in due time you receive God's peace that excels all thought, so that it will guard your hearts and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus. In 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4, God is called the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation. Another beautiful scripture is Psalm 34:18 "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." To help us cling to a measure of happiness and joy, amidst hardship, the Bible divulges that Jehovah God, who started mankind off in a lovely garden, has promised to restore Paradise on this earth under the rule of His heavenly Kingdom in the hands of the now glorified Jesus Christ. Then, the human family will have the prospect of enjoying life without end, free from all problems, sickness and disease. (Isaiah 33:24; Revelation 21:3,4) May these words bring you solace and delight while you reminisce fond memories of Marie.
