Terry Washam

OCT 4, 2012

Terry Dean “Dink” Washam, 58, of Cornelius, died October 3, 2012. He was born on November 22, 1953 in Mecklenburg County to the late Billy and Betty Reid Washam. He was proud of that fact that he built a 1923 T-Bucket Hotrod. He loved hunting deer, fishing, Nascar, his dog Ricco and most of all spending time with his beloved family and friends.

Survivors include his wife Mary Taylor Washam; son Scott Taylor of Charlotte; daughters, Dee Dee Washam of Mooresville and Jessi Taylor of Charlotte; step-mother Rita Washam of Indianland, SC; siblings Robbie Washam (Kris) of Cornelius, Carol Dunn (Danny) of Ballard, W.V., Mark Washam (Cris) of Denton, TX, Steve Brown (Peggy) of Ft. Mill, SC and Donnie Brown of Tega Cay; granddaughter Cheyanne, as well as numerous, aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

A funeral service will be held at 2:00 Saturday, October 6, 2012 in the chapel of James Funeral Home, 10520 Arahova Drive, Huntersville, with Rev. Mark Washam and Rev. J.E. Wayland, Jr. officiating. The family will receive friends following the funeral service. Interment will be private at Bethel Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the National Rifle Association, PO BOX 420648 Palm Coast, FL 32142-0648.

Mary, Scott, Dee Dee, Jessi & Family: No doubt, Dink appreciated the wonderful gift that life is. Our Heavenly Father and Creator cares for us and hates to see the suffering that is taking place worldwide. He promised that soon, 'He will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things will pass away.' (1 Peter 5:7; Rev. 21:3, 4) Can you imagine a paradise earth, where accidents, problems, mental anguish, sickness, and death will be no more? But until then, when we are plagued with disquieting thoughts, grief, or loneliness, Jehovah God invites us to rely on him to comfort us. In Isaiah 51: 2 he said: "I myself am the One that is comforting you people." He is also called the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation. (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) Therefore, may you find true comfort by turning to God's Word in your time of affliction.

Mary and Family, It is with a saddened heart that I learn of this. I know that "Dink's" love and spirit is with you during this time. You are in our thoughts and prayers. We pray that God will have his hand on each of you. There are no words to express our sorrow. Respectfully, Dale & Susan Gillespie Spartanburg, SC
