I am very sorry to hear about Uncle Johnny. I have alot of fond memories of him as a child. Making trips to Charlotte to see him and Aunt Tootise and watching him play the sax, he was definately my favorite uncle. The last time I saw him was at Aunt Tootsie's funeral, I will always remember my memories...

My sweet neighbor and such a wonderful man. I will miss your smiling face, and your sweet way with life. I loved when you played your sax and would play it for the kids when they had a birthday. You have taught me to be a better person and I look forward to hugging your neck when I see you in heaven one day. Lots of Love...Dana
