I was truly sorry to see Nancy's obituary in the Detroit New. My condolences go out to the whole family. I was a good friend of Nancy's in high school. I was remembering all the fun times we had together. She was the only one in our group who had a car. She would come and pick me up for school in the morning. I can especially remember her smile and laugh. We lost touch through the years, but I still remember her like it was yesterday. My prayers are with you.
