I have just learned of Scott's sudden passing and wish that I had been able to personally share my condolences with you. I would have expressed how much he loved all of you and how you were his primary focus in his life. Not a day went by that he didn't mention his family and lifetime friends with love in his heart and much appreciation for you being in his life. Scott was a fun, kind, compassionate and caring person. May fond memories of his infectious laugh, zest for life and graciousness ease your pain during this very difficult time. I will keep you in my daily prayers.
