Our deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. Words alone can not ease the pain when grieving the loss of a love one. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". May God give you and your family comfort in your loving memories and in His promise that soon we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope, with deepest sympathy and warmth of heart.

Roy, Grace and Hope, So sorry for your loss. I am and will keep praying for all of you, as you begin a new journey together. I was welcomed into the group of friends from the library, as well. I treasured all the ladies, as we all were raising our kids together. We all loved getting together at Kim's house for her annual Halloween party. I regret that Kim and I grew apart in the last few years. But I know she is in the glorious presence of Jesus now, and is finally pain-free. I am here for all of you, and am willing to help however I can. Love, Christine, Liam and Emma Mast

I will never forget Kim's smile, sense of humor, and selfless love for her family and friends. Like Darlene, I had the pleasure of meeting Kim at the Huntersville library story time. Our oldest daughters even share the same birthday and we were in the same hospital. Unfortunately, we lost touch over the years when my family moved, but I will always treasure memories of her friendship. All our love and prayers are with Roy, Grace and Hope. ❤️ Torri, Matt, Maddie, Georgia Trexler

Beautifully written. Kim was like a sister to me. We met at the library story time when our oldest girls were just babies. We share a lot of the same passion, she encouraged me through many tough times that life sends our way, and we shared our faith. Her departure left a huge hole in my heart but I will fill it with compassion and acts of kindness. Much love and prayers to Roy, Grace, and Hope and all those she left behind.~ Darlene
