Dear Glenda, I know the grief you are feeling over the loss of your soul mate and best friend. Losing your spouse is not an easy thing but I hope that the wonderful memories of your and Sonny's love for one another and the great times you had together will help you through the days ahead. The last conversation I had with him, all he could talk about was wanting at least a few more years with you. He was more concerned about you than any pain he was enduring. Sonny was a kind, loving person and I regret we didn't see each other very often. Most of my memories are of him as a young boy/man and the times when our families would get together. Sonny, I love you dear cousin and will miss you. God bless you Glenda - thank you for making Sonny's life so good and for taking care of him. Love, Helen

God has called one of His best home. Sonny is now rejoicing with no pain. I'm confident he was welcomed by all of the shaggers that have gone before him. They will all have a front row seat as we continue in this life...all the while keeping a watchful eye over us! Sonny, I loved you more than words can say and I am truly blessed to have all of those wonderful memories we made. There are so many that stand out, and they will fill my heart every time I think of you!!! God bless you Glenda and your family. I know this is difficult but I also know how very much Sonny adored you. The love you two shared will forever live in your heart. I love you 'til the ocean wears rubber panties to keep its bottom dry!!!
