Thank you so much for your sweet words Red! My mother always thought so much of you and told me stories with a big smile on her face! She was a wonderful lady and very much an inspiration to so many. She lived the last several years in Atlanta and was still playing bridge Thanksgiving! I miss her so much!

I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Margaret. Her daughter, Kathleen Posey, has been my sweetest and dearest friend since I moved to Charlotte in 1995. There could be no better daughter than my dear friend. I am thinking of beautiful Kathleen today as I write this. May her Mother rest in peace.

Every summer for many years as youngsters we played together on the home place. Her Daddy was born there and so was my Daddy because they were brothers. Lots of kids around but for some reason Peggy and I always ended up together. She stayed in North Carolina and my dad moved to Texas. We have kept in touch all these years and still have that warm feeling of being first cousins. She has been a wonderful mother and friend all these years and the kind of cousin that you are proud to claim. I will miss my friend and cousin and I regret I cannot be there for the funeral. I have said hello so many times I would like to say good bye. What a wonderful lady, wonderful in so many ways to so many people. Good bye Peggy. Thanks for being my cousin.
