Richard Callan

JAN 5, 2015

Richard Harry Callan, 68, of Davidson, NC died Monday, January 5, 2015 at his residence.

Richard spent his 30 year career working for the Department of Defense, first at the Pentagon - DESLOG for 2 years. He then moved with his young family to Frankfurt, Germany to work for the Army Corp of Engineers for 4 1/2 years. They then moved back to Virginia where he worked for the Army Material Command - AMC until retirement. He worked for five years as a government contractor with AMC at Ft. Belvoir before moving to Davidson, NC, upon his wife's retirement in 2006.

Richard was very active as an elder in the Community of Christ Church, where he played the organ, sang in the choir and provided ministry.

One of his true joys in life was singing with the Alexandria Community Singers in Virginia and the North Mecklenburg Community chorus.

Richard was happiest spending time with his family and many friends. He always greeted everyone with a huge smile and open heart. He was always there to support and help anyone in need or share in their happy moments.

He was born on August 23, 1946 in Mercer County, NJ and was the son of the late Charles Harry and Sylvia Rubright Callan.

Survivors include his wife, Karen Dougherty Callan of Davidson; two daughters, Christy Callan Wood and husband James of Davidson, and Jennifer Lowe of Mooresville; two brothers, Dennis Charles Callan and Thomas James Callan; nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

I was so sorry to hear of Rich's passing. I worked with him at HQAMC for many years. He was one of those people who was always willing to participate and to help in whatever task we had to accomplish...and always with a smile and a positive attitude. We communicated briefly a few months ago on Facebook. He still had that positive attitude! My deepest sympathy and prayers for his wife and his family.
