Kathy, although my husband, John, and I have not seen "Uncle Eddie" for such a long time, we really do remember him like it was yesterday. He was one of the friendliest and funniest guys in John's family, and made me feel so welcome when I first met everyone in Lake Village after moving here from Washington state to marry John. His extended family was a wonderful "package deal" -- I can promise you Uncle Eddie will always be remembered and greatly missed by us. John and I will be attending the memorial service today, Jan. 30th, in Lowell, Indiana, and I will be thinking of you... I am so very sorry for your loss. My sincere condolences and prayers to you and yours. Carla Yerga
