I am Lawrence's mom and, to EVERYONE who expressed their condolences to Lawrence's passing, all I can say is THANK YOU from the bottom of my heart for your heartfelt expressions about him and what he meant to you. I am SO proud of him and am still amazed at how many lives he touched in such a positive way. Yes, he will be sorely missed by everyone who knew him. It pains me to think of the "No mores," no more phone calls hearing his voice say "Hi, Mom" or "I love you," no more e-mails keeping me updated about Leland and Cienna, no more holding him in my arms when I go to see him in NC, no more plans to get together for family events. Yes, he was a very unique individual who wasn't much of a talker but he expressed himself more by his actions. I only wish he was still here to share his brilliance and personality with others for many more years. He passed way too early in his life but he did put up a good fight for as long as he could. Please keep Lawrence in your heart which will keep his spirit alive. Again, I want to thank EVERYONE for your kind words about my only child, Lawrence, may he rest in peace. God wanted his angel back. ~Darlene Edwards-Williams-Serrago~

Oh Darlene. I can barely speak right now. What a horrible loss for you. I remember him as a young boy. Mostly through the things you told me he was doing. But I felt like I knew him because of that. I know how very much you loved him and how proud you have always been of him. There are not enough words to express how sorry I am for you. It's one of the things we all pray we will never have to endure, but endure you must. I'm thankful he was in your life as I know he brought you much joy. May God give you comfort in this hour of trial.

I never officially met Lawrence. I felt i knew him bc his wife Gina talks a lot about him, about the fact that he is shy, love to play video games among other things. I also infered that he was a great father and husband, very caring individual. He is gone way too soon..But God has his own plan for him. My prayers are with the family during this hardship. May God give them the strength they need to carry on Right now when your loss is so fresh, it may be difficult for you to imagine that this pain will ever go away. But in time, the blessings of God's unfailing grace will soften the hurt that you're feeling and bring your heart the peace, comfort, and hope that it needs to heal. Until then, remember that there is a circle of friends surrounding you who are embracing you, and lifting you up in prayer!!!! Dennis Sloan RN and the nurses at Carolinas Medical Center.

Since I was in elementary school he has been part of family gatherings and holidays. I vividly remember him driving us to the pool. I remember watching movies with him. I remember him fixing everything technology related for us. I remember him cooking for us. While he was quiet, he was great at showing love in his own way. He had a big heart and was all about giving. Road trips to North Carolina will no longer be filled with the same excitement and happiness now that Lawrence won't be there to greet us upon arrival. While I am heartbroken in this moment I pray that the entire Williams family be encouraged by the support and love that is being sent to them from all corners of the Earth. Rest in peace and power Lawrence. Psalm 31:24 Be of good courage, And He shall strengthen your heart, All you who hope in the Lord.

My deepest condolences to the Williams family. I worked with Lawrence on a project with NY Life and from the first meeting, I was so shocked by the amount of knowledge he had concerning his team/product. He knew the ends and out and was never afraid to answer any of my questions. I was always nervous about answering questions because I always had the feeling that it may be rejected, as if I should always know exactly what is going on being new to the team. I can honestly say that he was the one to break that feeling that I had. For the short time I knew him, he will forever leave an impression. He will surely be missed.

I'll always remember Lawrence and how much he loved his family. There are no words that are truly comforting at this time so hopefully you can come back and read this at a later time and appreciate his positive impact on others. We lift you up unto the Lord
In this time of grief, We pray the Lord will be to you

And when you have no answers
To all the questions 'why',
Know that God is in control
And is there by your side
He understands the way you feel
And knows the loss you face,
So rest in His eternal love,
For there, you'll find His grace.

I have always admired his intelligence. He had often shared about the delievery of Cienna in meetings. We miss you Lawrence. I am so thankful to him for all he has done so far. I should definetly share this, when I was handling my 3 months baby and working, he was very supportive and helped me to wrap up the work. He made my work easy those days. We really really miss you.
