Mary Kathleen Gullo

FEB 20, 2015

Mary K. Gullo, 94, of Huntersville, N.C., formerly of N. Canton, Ohio, died on Feb. 20, 2015.

She was born in Williamsport, on July 1, 1920. She served in the U.S. Armed Forces.

She spent most of her adult life in Canton and moved to Huntersville three years ago to be close to her great-niece Tami (and husband Joe) Grieco-Cannici.

In addition, she is survived by her daughter, Sharon (and husband Eugene) Hamilton, of California; four grandchildren; and one great-grandchild. Her husband, Frank, and son, James, preceded her in death.

Burial will take place by her beloved husband at Wildwood Cemetery, Williamsport. James Funeral Home is serving the family. www.jamesfuneralhomeLKN.com

Please accept my sympathy on the loss of Kathleen. I am one of the ladies from Little Flower parish who took Communion to Kathleen. I was taking Communion to her when Jim died. She was so courageous throughout that ordeal. She was an inspirational person and I am privileged to have met her. Thank you for letting us know of her passing. We had been wondering about her as we lost contact with her once she moved. May she rest in peace.
