Elaine Schmidt

FEB 24, 2015

Elaine “Kitty” Schmidt, 81, of Denver, NC, went to be with her Lord on February 23, 2015. Her faith and love for Christ guaranteed an eternity with Him. She believed “the best is yet to come.”

She was born in Sedalia, MO, the youngest daughter of Anna and Oscar Tieman, and employed at City National Bank, in Kansas City, in her early working years, before becoming a homemaker. She was preceded in death by her parents and sister, Evelyn Turner. She is survived by two daughters, Cindy Benson (Ron) of Davidson, NC, and Sherri Stock (Steve) of Gravois Mills, MO, five grandchildren, Cathy Laws (Keith) of Sherrills Ford, NC, Christy McDaniel (Ricky) of Concord, NC, Michael Benson (Audrey) of Kannapolis, NC, Nick Stock (Jenni) of Laurie, MO, and Samantha Stock of Pleasant Hill, MO, and seven great-grandchildren. She enjoyed writing poetry and working in her yard. She was her happiest when spending time with her family. “A mother holds her children’s hands for a short while, but their hearts forever.”

Elaine will be laid to rest in Sedalia, MO, at Memorial Park Cemetery, on February 28.

James Funeral Home of Huntersville is serving the family. www.jamesfuneralhomeLKN.com

Hello I am a second cousin to Elaine. My grandfather (Harry) and Elaine's Dad (my great uncle Oscar) were brothers. I lost touch with Elaine in later years. I saw her at Uncle Oscar's funeral and my Aunt Donna's funeral in app 1982. So sorry to hear we lost Elaine. I tried to make connection with her this Christmas with a card. She had 1st cousins Dorothy and Virginia that live in Florida and Texas, respectively that I had talked to to find out where she was living. I would have loved talking with her. I have been to Sedalia, Mo to see the graves there of great grandmother and great grandfather Tiemann. Also Uncle Oscar and Aunt Anna's grave and Uncle Cecil. Cecil was Oscar's youngest brother. Again sorry for your loss and it is always difficult to lose your mother. I'm happy to see her close by her mom and Dad. My mother is still living and is 96 years old. It will be hard to lose her someday when the Lord calls her home. Maybe we will meet or talk one day.
