I just found out that Ken passed away on 1-1-2019. My deepest condolences to his family and friends. I met Ken in Scottsdale around 1998 through a mutual friend. I talked Ken into going Trap Shooting with me. It wasn't long before Ken realized he enjoyed going out to Red Mountain Trap and Skeet as much as I did and we became good friends. We enjoyed going out to Red Mountain about once a week and it became our weekly ritual. We continued shooting together until about 2003 when I was transferred to Las Vegas to work on another construction project. In the years after my transfer Ken and I lost touch with each other mostly because I did a lot of moving around with the construction company I worked for. After leaving Scottsdale I missed going out to Red Mountain with Ken but now I miss him even more knowing that we will never go shooting again and I realize that I lost a wonderful friendship in Ken's passing.
