Kool, you know I told you thousands of times that you called yourself the Man The myth The Legend, was made up by you, but as I think over the many years that we were BEST BUDDIES, it's more evident now that you were right. Gosh I could write a novel on all the times we've had, but there was never a truer friend than you. You loved Judith, the kids and Grand kids more than they could ever imagine, and God will comfort them with these memories. You always gave your time to be part of the Fat Boy Club at NLHS unrelentingly.....You will be missed but NEVER FORGOTTEN "There will always be a chair for you in the Press Box. Kool I love Ya and will always cherish the times that we shared. You know I always told you that a man's Legacy was when they were thought about a smile or laugh came across their face if he made an impact, you are a Great Example of this. Kool I'm gonna miss you along with EVERYONE that you passed paths with. Now is the time for you to rest and reflect on your life In Heaven. We'll see you Soon Kary Miller

Judith,I was very shocked when I heard about Steve's passing. Steve and I have known each since elementary school. He was so much fun. Always had a smile on his face and loved tricking people. Besides all of our school years together, there is one memory I will always have.Some of our 1970 classmates got together at Captain's Galley in Huntersville. It was so nice to see Steve and meet you. I brought my grandson and great niece. You played with them during the entire time we were there and so did Steve. He was a great person and will be greatly missed. He is in a better place and you will be with him one day. My prayers go out to you and your family. May God grant you peace and comfort during this difficult time.

I hadn't seen Steve for about 10 years. Ironically, he came to my brother Ronnie's service after he passed. It was good to see Steve, as we talked for quite a while. This was just before Christmas. I'm so glad we were able to spend time going over old times. He will be missed.

"Big brother Steve" which he always referred to himself as the Kool man would come to moms house. I'd say something smart & he'd say watch it now, Kool Man is here... Oh my goodness. That's all it took & we were at it...You'd think we were arguing. We'd go back & forth for awhile then momma would tell us both to sit down & hush. We would both tell her it was the other ones fault for running our mouth. Oh what fun we had. We always knew we could count on Steve. He was one of a kind for sure. He truly was the son my parents never had. I will never ever forget the Saturday my dad passed away. My dad was in a nursing home. Steve & Karen were down at momma house helping her. Steve or both him & Karen would always look after momma. That day they happen to be there & the phone rang. Karen got it & told momma that she needed to take the call. You know you hear people say God knows what He's doing. Well everyone needs to believe that. I believe with all my heart God sent Steve & karen down to help momma that day b/c He called my daddy home to Him and my momma had Steve there to help her. Or there were the times I was growing up & would go over to Aunt Eunice house & stay for several days. You'd come in & go "you here again, when you going home?"....I'd tell him I'm not going anywhere, I'm going to stay & bug you...He would say something smart & it was on again.... I loved that about Steve. We could go back & forth with each other & then turn around, give each other a hug. Big brother Kool man I will always love you & cherish the memories & fun we had. Thank you for being that adopted son to mom & dad & a big brother to Gail & myself. You will truly be missed but I guess God needed another angel in heaven. At least I know without a doubt that you are with daddy singing & shouting praising to God..Love you forever big brother!
