Francis Kittilstvedt Bangsil

MAR 8, 1952 - SEP 3, 2019

Mrs. Francis Kittilstvedt Bangsil, 67, of Huntersville, NC passed away peacefully on September 3, 2019, with her family by her side.

She was born to the late Raymond and Basilisa Kittilstvedt in Cabadbaran City, Philippines in 1952. She married the love of her life, Eloy L. Bangsil, Jr. in 1971. They immigrated to the United States in 1973 and lived in New Jersey for over twenty years. Francis obtained her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Gwynedd Mercy University in Gwynedd Valley, PA and worked as a Registered Nurse at the Philadelphia VA Medical Center in PA and Ancora Hospital in New Jersey for many years.

Francis was a dedicated mother first and foremost. She especially loved her role as Grandma. Her primary focus was always centered on family and friends. She enjoyed, most of all, spending time with her loved ones. Francis was a loving and compassionate woman whose smile and wit brightened anyone's day. She will be remembered for her kindness, affection and unwavering strength. As a loving mother, grandmother, aunt and friend, Francis will be greatly missed by all who were fortunate to have known her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Raymond and Basilisa Kittilstvedt, brother, Joseph Kittilstvedt and her husband, Eloy L. Bangsil, Jr.

Francis is lovingly remembered by her children Ella Bangsil Balagtas (Dennis) of North Carolina and Ethan Bangsil (Meryll) of Florida; grandchildren Michael, Michaella, Daniella, Evangeline, Elliana, and Emily; great-grandchild McKenzie; sister Rita Soriano and countless cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

A private viewing ceremony for the family will be held on September 5, 2019, at James Funeral Home in Huntersville, NC. A memorial service will be held in New Jersey at a later date.

How wonderfully welcoming Auntie Francis, and you, Ella and Dennis, were when Jerry and I came up to New Jersey as you hosted Dennis and Kristine's engagement party. I remember happily the cheerful genuinely warm greetings then and on additional occasions of family gatherings. May remembering her strength in caring strengthen you, Ella and Dennis, Ethan, Rita, and all the family at this time and into the future. God be with you now and forevermore, Jerry and Cathy Markatos
