To the family of Denise Queen Sackenger. I'm praying that God shields you from all the sorrow that comes when a loved one passes. I remember when we played at our grandparents house in East Gastonia. We had some great times together. We love each one of you, even though we never new her family. Forever Sandra Queen and family.

Denise and I are cousins. I fondly remember family dinners at our grandparents home. The homemade ice cream that our grandfather would churn, grandmother's homemade grape pies and so many other goodies. Denise will be greatly missed. Vickie Queen Wisniewski and spouse, Robert.

I would see Denise at Shuffletown Grill. We'd talk about our children and how time has flown since we were grade moms together. She loved her family and cherished any time she was able to spend with them. I'm thankful to know you rest in the arms of Jesus and you are healed. God bless your family. Debbie Hilton
