She was the best friend I ever had. She was such a good neighbor. She would give the shirt off her back to any stranger who needed it.

So many memories -too many to choose one to share. But I loved this lady, she was my Dad's second wife, and for a stepmother she set the bar high. After years of not being in contact I was happy to be able to stay in touch for over the past 25 years and I grew very close to her. She was truly one of a kind; loving, and feisty, a very savvy business woman and I've never seen her try anything she couldn't do - except maybe conquer the computer! I will miss being able to call her and just talking. RIP sweet lady, know that you will be missed dearly.
