Liz. so very sorry to hear about Lou. The two of you were an inspiration. I remember how it all began and to think that you were both fortunate to have each other for so long, is a true love story. I am so glad, on your wedding day, you did not grab my amex and run. WALTER

Lou was my brother-in-law for thirty years. He was a good man and loved our daughter Lucia, she made him melt into a big marshmallow!! Lol! I remember ball the good times we had. I thank you for all your love over the years and the conversation! I miss you and Liz and hope you understand my choices. I will never forget the change in your persona whenever you were hungry and food wasn't done yet; or how you would operate on lobster, crabs, and any shell fish; you didn't miss a morsel! I love you Lou! Keep your eyes on Liz and get her through this!

Hi Louie, I'm thinking about how long we have been friends. Our first meeting was not in person but through a note on my car with your apartment number - remember? From that note came all of the things we did together. You invited me to play golf at Banksville - my first time playing. We would go on to play many rounds of golf together, including the Dutcher, your favorite course. Remember how we would explain our missed shots on some outside force and take full responsibility for all of our great shots and laugh together. How about playing horseshoes together and with your family at your house? I can still see you at the helm of your barbecue grill and looking for the floating lobster in your pool each season. Of course, there were also all of our family gatherings that we attended together. Oh yes, the Yankee game we went to for your birthday and how exciting it was to see your name up on the giant scoreboard - that was great! Thanks for inviting me to go with you. Just wanted you to know how much your friendship means to me. Don Sterlini

I have about 40 years of Fond Memories! Lou was a Good Brother in-law. One of My favorite Memories was when He and My Sister Liz would host me and a group of Foster Kids that lived with me. All 8 of them at once. He would drop his Tough Italian Guy Facade and Turn his home into "Camp Louie" playing basketball and swimming in the pool with them All. Louie had Great Compassion for my kids.

We met Lou and Liz through neighbors from our old neighborhood who were then their neighbors so they became what I guess you could call our step-neighbors-in-law. It was a good fit from the start. Lou and I (Robert) talked about the Yankees, poker, golf, live music and food – we were fans of all of them. Overall Lou probably got the best of me at the poker table, but I was well compensated eating at one of the Italian night dinners he and Liz put together. If you spent time around Lou and Liz you knew two things for certain: 1) they loved each other and 2) Lou was a good listener! We will miss Lou his warm personality and great smile. Rest in peace and God speed friend. Robert and Cebby McCarter

Gina and I were very saddened to receive the news of Lou's passing. We had the pleasure of attending their wedding and I worked with both of them for many years. Lou was quiet, humble, caring & kind, but had a great sense of humor and was an enormousfighter. The several years showed us that. I wish Gina and I could have made our way down to NC at least one time since Liz & Louie left NY. R.I.P. Lou Love Gina & Lou Crispo oh my precious lou! how he is missed. we shared so many memories together. i am missing our tea time. i will never go out the garage without thinking of him. he would be coming across the yard at a slow pace and i would say run forest run. he would put his arms up by his side and pretend to be sprinting. we would all laugh. and our most laughed about time was when all power went out, including the mobil phones for a time. he came over and ask me if our power was off and for me to check my mobil phone to see if it had a dialtone!!!! he convinced me , so i checked.....lol... we shared many laughs over that. and so many memories about him and his fig tree. how he guarded it when the figs came on !!! lou was a gentle giant. he ran his race and never complained. thanks for the memories.....
