Eugenia Roncone

APR 18, 1944 - JUN 27, 2020

Eugenia Roncone (Presby) peacefully passed away Saturday, June 27, 2020. She was born in Youngstown, Ohio on April 18, 1944 to Marian Cindy Rutches and John Przybylowicz and became a long-time resident of the Mahoning Valley. Ginka, as she was fondly nicknamed by her peers and family, resided in Charlotte, NC at the time of her passing. She graduated Boardman High School class of 1962 where she discovered a passion for service and government, becoming involved in various clubs and activities. Ginka stayed active in community service and outreach her entire life. Spanning from St. Joseph Church in Austintown, OH to the Rotary, Chamber of Commerce in Scotts Valley, Ca. and her community's homeowners' association in Charlotte, NC. She always had a flare for entrepreneurship and creativity. One of her proudest accomplishments was the development and opening of the Donut Oven in Youngstown.

Eugenia is preceded in death by her parents and her two brothers Tom Lewis (Yvonne) and Sam Dipalmo (Ella) and grandson Geno Roncone. She is survived by her sister Jackie Stoner (Longstreet) brother John Longstreet and three children, Carina Nevel, Gene Roncone (Rhonda), and Kelle Sperbeck (Marshall) along with 8 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

In lieu of a service, memorial contributions may be made to the Hospice & Palliative Care Charlotte Region via <https://www.hpccr.org/give/make-a-donation> or mail to Hospice & Palliative Care Charlotte Region, PO Box 470408, Charlotte, NC 28247.

Jennifer Miller sent a virtual gift in honor of Eugenia.

Carina and family, Heartbroken to learn of Gena's passing as I was preparing to reach out with birthday wishes. Thankful we were able to meet up when I was in Charlotte in June 2019. She holds a special place in my heart as a dear friend. I treasure our conversations over coffee during our realtor days. She was always so proud of her children and grandchildren- her legacy. My sincerest condolences on your loss. Wishing you peace. ❤️. Jennifer Miller
